LIFT YOUR SPIRITS

Shipwreck Honey 12

the spirit of THE WORKER bee

applejack brandy, chamomile dolin blanc, local honey & bee pollen, prosecco topper

a bee colony that has more workers than work, sends bees to colonize new frontier by replicating home's existing order. see: the colonial model of the british royal navy and how seattle's urban honey movement began on a wrecked ship.

The Princeton 14

the UNCONVENTIONAL spirit

four roses yellow label bourbon, pierre ferrand dry curacao, aperol, lemon, grapefruit, ginger beer whiskey-christened, the USS Princeton uniquely began its travels in the mediterranean and kept that course through the caribbean. with flavors from east and west of the pond, The Princeton delights.

Jack Appl'd 13

the spirit of troublemaking MONKEY

zubrowka bison grass vodka, lairds applejack, clove, lemon on long voyages without modern means of preservation, sailors soaked fresh apples in barrels of grog. when a jack snuck one-too-many apples, he may end up "jack appl'd"

Zaya Daiquiri 13

the rooster's PARTY spirit

zaya twelve year, lemon, grapefruit the origin of the daiquiri is the subject of much disagreement, so let your story begin with the balance of tropical fruits and the vanilla notes aged-rum, and let it end with keeping your balance.

Young Man & The Sea 13

the spirit of the anarchist CAT papas pilar three year, lemon, smoked salt, egg white, angostura bitters solid foam and a hint of salinity transports you to hemingway's boat, pilar, where he fished by day and wrote in the golden glow of the moon, and rum. "no animal has more liberty than the cat, but it buries the mess it makes. the cat is the best anarchist" - e.h.

East Indiaman 15

the spirit of a royal LION

lemongrass-lime ford's gin, coco lopez, orange, thai chili tincture, pineapple cilantro syrup, grated nutmeg this name was given to tradeships flying the dutch east indies trading company's two sea-lion'ed flag. lions fighting bengali tigers became synonymous with india's fight for independence. prior, it was a sign food would taste better soon.

Tiki Punch 14

the spirit of the protective DOLPHIN plantation white, siesta spiced, don q coconut, luxardo maraschino, taylor fladgate port, lemon, raspberry, pineapple, xocolatl & angostura bitters

may the tiki gods be pleased, for when the tiki gods are pleased, one's aumukua, or deified ancestors, are likely to appear in dreams and visions to guide you. even better, they may appear in reality to help when you need it most. the dolphin is the tiki god as a protector often warding off sharks from maori fishermen.

Angus Winchester 15

the spirit of the elephant TRAVELER nolet's gin or ketel one vodka, lemon, local honey, cardamom pod, pink peppercorn, basil leaf, fever tree club soda dedicated to the Mary Rose.

sunk in 1545, raised in 1982: one of the discoveries of the mary rose shipwreck
- sailors had pepper in their pockets. men risked their lives traveling the world for a pocketful of spices, the most portable form of currency of the day.

Siren 23

ketel one vodka or hendricks gin, st. germaine, prosecco, lemon, ice: grapefruit, cranberry, orchid
the spirit of the enchanting SWAN

the demise of many a great crew, beautiful sirens are known to lure captains by song to rocky farewells. our rocks are far friendlier, and prettier.

Smoking Jacket 23

the spirit of the adaptive LEOPARD four roses single barrel bourbon, angostura bitters, burnt sugar syrup, smoked glass

deconstructed old fashioned, and like a campfire, just better, and named for one of the many lasting affects of the asia-europe trade routes by land and sea - the always ostentatious, likely velvet and silk, smoking jacket.

Firth of Clyde 18

the spirit of the introverted SEAL laguvin scotch, bushmills irish, green chartreuse, orgeat, lime, pineapple, cayenne salt rim

a deep sheltered port, this bustling center of trade is where the united kingdom's whiskeys begin their way around the world. adding to the volume, harbor seals spend mating season here before heading away from the hustle and bustle to northern lochs channels and lochs.

well-traveled classics

Sazerac 12

wild turkey 101 rye whisky -or- pierre ferrand 1840 cognac, demerara sugar, peychaud's bitters, absinthe

the official cocktail of new orleans, the sazerac was originally made with cognac. in the 1870s, an infestation of phylloxera devastated french grape crops, halting the production of cognac. rye whiskey was quickly used as a substitute and is the most widely used spirit for the cocktail today.

Pisco Sour 12

fontana pisco, lime juice, simple syrup, egg white pisco, an unaged south american brandy made from grapes, is at the center of a debate. chile and peru have both laid claim as the birthplace of this century-old cocktail. a drink so loved, it has become the national drink for both countries. this cocktail is a nod to the peruvian-style with egg whites and bitters.

Martinez 12

ransom old tom gin, carpano antica sweet vermouth, maraschino cherry liqueur, orange bitters vermouth's introduction prompted an explosion of new cocktails in the early 1800s. this one is believed to be the precursor to the martini. unsurprisingly, the truth is a bit hazy.

Paloma 12

milagro blanco tequila, fresh grapefruit juice, lime juice, club soda, salt rim the paloma, or "the dove", is mexico's most popular tequila cocktail. it is believed to be named after identically named song from the 1860s.

Manhattan 12

rittenhouse rye whiskey, wild turkey 101 rye whisky, carpano antica sweet vermouth, angostura bitters, brandied cherries while no one is sure of the true story, it is widely accepted that the manhattan was created in the late 1860s in a bar off broadway by a bartender named black. black could not be reached for comment.

Aviation 12

bombay sapphire gin, lemon juice, maraschino cherry liqueur, creme de violette rumored to be the commemorative cocktail for the first transatlantic flight in 1919, the aviation is the brainchild of german-born bartender, hugo enssli. americans missed the boat on this cocktail for many years until the reintroduction of creme de violette to the american market. now the aviation can once again take flight, and you can make up for lost time.
