

A Story of Creation

*The ability to create is what makes us human.
It is what separates us from all other creatures.
We are culinary artists.
Nature's bounty is the clay.
We mold and shape what we envision.
We use what we have been blessed with.
The Fruitful Harvest, Bountiful Seas and Green Pastures.
We present them to you as a charred offering.
That over the breaking of bread may bring us all closer together.
To this land of milk and honey.*
