WHISKY COCKTAILS

Augustus Rescue 65
Veal Bacon Infused Bulleit Bourbon, Southern Comfort, Couinteau, Lime & Aqua Fava

Tom Augustus was the founder of Bulleit Bourbon. In 1860 he loaded up a flat-bottom boat full of bourbon barrels and left for New Orleans to sell them... and he was never seen again. Search parties even went out, and came back with nothing. Soon enough it was the Civil War, and the search for Augustus Bulleit became lost in time.

The Brother's Secret 80
Dry Prune Infused Chivas, Honey, Orange & Handmade Prune/Cranberry Bitters

Before they started blending and selling Scotch, the Chivas brothers had a grocery in Aberdeen, Scotland, which opened in 1801; they wouldn't start producing whisky for almost 50 years. They started selling rum, brandy, whisky, and foodstuffs to the masses, but even more importantly their own favorite craft Chivas Regal in their basement.

The Irish Cooper 85
Jameson Black Barrel, Senjai Tea, Benedictine, Kaffir Leaf & Herbal Syrup

Charring is an age-old method for invigorating barrels to intensify the taste. Jameson Black Barrel is a tribute to the coopers of Jameson, who painstakingly give their bourbon barrels an additional charring to reveal their untold richness and complexity. Because every barrel contains secrets; the trick is coaxing them out.

GIN COCKTAILS

Blooms Day 70
Bloom Gin, Elderflower Syrup, Cucumber, Sparkling Wine & Citrus Bitters

Ulysses is a modernist novel by Irish writer James Joyce. It is considered to be one of the most important works of modernist literature and has been called “a demonstration and summation of the entire movement.” Ulysses chronicles the peripatetic appointments and encounters of Leopold Bloom in Dublin in the course of an ordinary day. Ulysses is the Latinized name of Odysseus, the hero of Homer’s epic poem Odyssey. Joyce fans worldwide now celebrate 16 June as Bloomsday.

The Black Paw 70
Hayman’s Old Tom Gin, Cynar & Tocchi Americano

The name Old Tom Gin supposedly came from wooden plaques shaped like a black cat (an “Old Tom”) attached on the outside wall of some pubs above a public walkway in 18th-century England. Owing to the Gin Craze, the British government tried to stem the flow of gin with prohibitive taxes and licensing, which drove the scene underground. Under the cat’s paw sign was a slot to put money in and a lead tube. Guess what was pouring down that tube? Yep, it was Gin!

The Bull-Dog Spirit 70
Bulldog Gin, Cherry Heering, Campari, Fresh Lemon & Rose Water

Meaning “Relentless British Courage.” The bulldog was deployed as an emblem of British nationalism during the 19th-century, plucky Bulldogs soon became a regular fixture in World War I propaganda posters. The most symbolism came when Winston Churchill became Prime Minister. In physical terms, the dog and the wartime leader shared a rounded face, jowly cheeks and a tubby anatomy. More importantly, the bulldog’s persistence appeared to mirror the determination of a well-known politician.

GIN COCKTAILS

Moby's Revenge 70
Bombay Gin, Aperol, Mastic Liqueur, Sparkling Wine, Kumquat & Rosemary

First published in 1851, Melville's masterpiece is, in Elizabeth Hardwick's words, "the greatest novel in American literature." The saga of Captain Ahab and his monomaniacal pursuit of the white whale remains a peerless adventure story but one full of mythic grandeur, poetic majesty, and symbolic power. Who knows, maybe Moby will show up in your glass.

Voyage of Hope 75
Plymouth Gin, Martini Bianco, Blue Pee Flower Tea, Chartreuse & Elderflower Syrup

Mayflower, the ship that retains special significance in the brand of Plymouth's 200 year history, as allegedly some of the Pilgrim Fathers spent their final night in Britain at the Plymouth monastery, before setting sail for the New World. This voyage has become a cultural icon in the history of the United States, with its story of death and survival in the harsh New England winter environment.

NEW AGE CIGARS

DREW ESTATE

Liga Privada No. 9 220
Originally blended for the company's president, who favors rich, strong, oscuro wrapped cigars. This private blend took off and is now sold to the public uncellophaned to appreciate the beauty of this cigar's very dark oily wrapper and rich aroma. Liga Privada No. 9 is naturally sweet with hints of cocoa and coffee.

Liga Privada Unico Series 250
The wrapper is Connecticut Broadleaf with a Brazilian Mata Fina binder and select Honduran and Nicaraguan tobaccos in the filler. The UF 13 is a strong full-bodied cigar when compared to other sticks in the Liga Privada line.

Liga Under Crown Maduro 145
The expertly rolled, medium-bodied Drew Estate Undercrown Robusto is a combination of truly unique and extraordinarily delicious, rich, and spicy flavors. This premium handmade gem is one of the several sizes created by Drew Estate's expert rollers for their own personal enjoyment. Now it's your turn to experience this wonderful smoke!

Liga Privada Feral Flying Pig 280
The Flying Pig is similar in blend to the the Liga Privada No. 9 but with a dash of dark ligero leaf thrown in to crank up the flavor a notch. Plump and pigtailed, this dark perfecto starts with an uneven burn that corrects itself. It delivers an earthy, charry smoke with hints of anise and vanilla bean.

Pappas Fritas 170
Handcrafted entirely from only the chaveta cuts of our extra dark Broadleaf capa and the rare, Grade A1 filler tobacco trimmings created by the production of our famed Liga Privada blends, these coronas are arguably the finest "tripa corta" cigars ever made. What they may lack in beauty they more than make up for in satisfying flavor and aroma. Spicy, rich and delicious, they are named in honor of one of El Jefe's favorite foods: French Fries!
